

Rare Bone Disease Workshop, in collaboration with ICCBH

Wednesday 27 June 2018
Wessex Suite, Winchester Cathedral

Chairs: Kassim Javaid (Oxford, UK) and Nick Bishop (Sheffield, UK)

Agenda

19:00	Registration and networking Dinner served
19:30	Introduction: What has genetics taught us about bringing basic scientist and clinicians together? Matt Warman (Boston, USA)
19:55	100, 000 Genomes and rare bone disorders: impacts for patients, clinicians and scientists Richard Scott (Cambridge/London, UK)
20:15	Wrap around cases or Abstracts x3 (7+3m) with both clinical and basic elements
20:45	Break
21:00	Burosumab in paediatric bone diseases: what have we learnt? Anya Rothenbuhler (Paris, France)
21:20	Asfotase alfa in paediatric and adult diseases Wolfgang Högler (Birmingham, UK)
21:40	Repurposing in rare bone disease therapies Mike Briggs (Newcastle upon Tyne, UK)
22:00	Close